赵松庭 纪念音乐会

Tribute to Maestro Zhao Song Ting

The demise of renowned dizi Maestro Zhao Song Ting is likened to the loss of a gem in the Chinese orchestral scene. As an influential figure, Zhao had garnered much authority in the art of dizi playing – through his captivating solo performances, as well as his composing and rearranging of a substantial number of works for the instrument. These works in turn, become a much-treasured remnant of the dizi master. This concert shall commemorate Zhao, by engaging some of his much sought-after students to perform his many well-known ever-greens, such as Flying Partridge; Scenery of River Wu; and The Spring Orchid. In honour of the great dizi master, this is a concert not to be missed.
